

$3.00. $12.00.
 EAVITT. HOBBS' VARIETY STORE.

Oxford County Advertiser.

(Entered as second-class mail matter.)

Single Copies of the Advertiser can be had at the office, or by mail, at the rate of five cents each. Subscriptions at the rate of $1.00 per annum in advance. The Advertiser is published every Friday, except on the first of the month, when it is published on the second. It is published at the office of the Advertiser, at the corner of the Main and State streets, in the city of New York.

WEST BETHLE.

J. H. Rollins of Middlebury, having been here with his wife on a visit started for home one day last week. Next Pleasant after their home being broken, and returned so quickly as to throw both out of the wagon, inflicting both and doing slight damage to the wagon.

C. C. Allen, wife and daughter of Dorchester, Mass., while on their way home from the Village Fair, stopped at this place on a visit to their friends, Geo. Goodwin and wife.

Bert and Clara Richardson of Gorham, N. H., were here last week on a visit to W. A. Farwell and wife.

E. F. Pike has built an addition to his store.

Millard Mason came home to visit his parents bringing a lady friend with him. E. B. Shaw is sending potatoes to market.

Mrs. Ed. Bell has the cellar nearly dug for her new house.

Dr. O. F. Whitcomb and Leviason were here last week to attend the funeral of his brother's wife.

Two young ladies, daughters of Eugene and Mrs. A. H. Shaw, are here to visit their grandmother, Mrs. Almira Shaw. Thaddeus Luntton went to Rumford Falls last week.

Little E. Whitman (see Scribner) wife of Melvin Whitman, died at Worcester, Mass., August 29, aged 29 years. Her remains were brought here for burial. The funeral was held at the schoolhouse on the 31st inst. A good number of friends and relatives were present. Little was the daughter of Mrs. A. H. Shaw, who was born in this village. She was a very bright and accomplished young lady. She was always liked near this village. She was kind hearted to all. She was the idol of the family, and leaves many friends who will miss her.

Maud and George Morrow have returned from their trip to Portland.

Mrs. Susan Farwell visited at Gilead last week.

The ladies' chapel at society has purchased the building and is now in the hands of the ladies. It is on the east side of the road between Milton Falls and Mary F. Holt's land. It is considered by all a fine location.

Dr. DeCoster's youngest son who has been dangerously ill is very much improved.

Another race at the White track on Saturday. The race was won by the horse of C. D. Heald's stable on first heats. The three minute race, your correspondent being unable to do so, refrains from the attempt. A game of baseball at the same time and place between Buckfield and Hartford. The result was a tie.

The remains of Mr. Pearce, late of Canada, formerly of this town, were brought here for interment a few days since. Fifty years ago, I am informed, he was called upon to navigate the coast of Oilead to notify relatives of the death of the above named (Pearce's) wife, whose remains were brought here, and now rest in the family lot near Hubbard Road in this town. Her maiden name was Long.

A. E. Cole with mother, Jeff Russell and several others have gone to the sea shore to recuperate.

Stanley Bisset and family were down from Rumford Falls to spend the Sabbath.

Emma Tilton of Auburn is the guest of Gilbert Tilton.

"What must we do to be saved?" Leon Tilton uses this question frequently upon us, and it will continue until 1890 and then the millennium. His wife is a devoted wife and mother. Upon us. Our potatoes are small, our apples somewhat affected. We must have for sale by the barrel, and we must have the buyer must spray also have two sprays, green and red, and kind of a favor, from the heavens above or the earth below. I sprayed my trees last at the blossoms, and in the fall of the year and stopped there. Last year I sprayed twice, as I thought with good effect. If anyone knows just what to do, where, and what to do please report. We want actual experiments, no theoretical deductions will be accepted.

Episcopal services were conducted at the M. E. church last Sabbath at 10.45 a. m., by Rev. Mr. C. D. Heald. The regular service by the Methodist at 2.30 p. m.

African Concert of this town, attended a reunion of his regiment at Kennebec. Since the war he has raised 5 boys and 6 girls. His 5 sons support the town of the Comant's Band, led by the 9 year old Comant's. In appreciation of the services of this band $50 were gratuitously subscribed.

NORTH WEST BETHLE.

W. M. Wright and wife are home again. Mrs. Wright has been visiting her sister at East Bethel and Mr. Wright has been attending a musical convention in Boston.

Mrs. E. S. Skillings is up from Portland.

Mrs. Sarah P. Bean has been quite ill but seems to be gaining a little now.

Mrs. Lydia Scribner Morrill from Yarmouth visited her mother and sister at this place recently.

Irving Reed of Oxford spent last Sunday here with his mother.

Ellen Kenley has come to visit her brother and friends here. Miss Penley's home is in Middleboro, Mass.

Mrs. Mary O. Wilson's only brother, George, is stopping with her for a while.

"They say" Abner P. Chapman has swapped horses with John of Rock. Little and guests had a picnic here, and Saturday morning Mr. and family, Geo. Dawson and wife, Mr. James Stetson, and family and relatives took a picnic supper in the woods.

Herbert Kendall passed through the place the 20th on his way to Berlin. He drives a good horse and a carriage. Charles Valentine's black mare has a very handsome colt.

We see our good luck to see the trot at the Park, but the news of Giff's victory made us laugh, and it was fun to laugh at the horses at the Park. Griffin couldn't pick his feet up, and he was not to "get there" ahead of the beautiful black Drovers, and will have to stop longer and make "the little wheels go round" faster, if he heads the same Griffin.

George W. Mason found two of his sheep dead, and to all appearances they were killed by dogs.

Kimball Bennett of Magalloway visited his sister, Mrs. G. W. Mason, here last week.

Almon Alden, Percy and Jesse Whitney have gone on the road canvassing for fruit trees. They will travel to the southern part of the state until they have sold their trees and will go to Rhode Island this winter. There are working for Homer Chase.

John Stockford is cutting bushes for Almon Alden, a much needed job. Almon will sell out his whole farm to visit next week.

Leno Chadwick of Boston is spending his vacation with Geo. and Leroy Thompson. He works in a store in Boston.

Joseph Shortman has returned from New York and Boston where he has been on business. He has a good horse and goes into winter quarters in his camp on Old York Mountain.

Wm. Fletcher of Lewiston is visiting at John Hyland's.

Wm. Mitchell and Ruth Taylor have gone to the Richardson's place for a school and piano recital dance at half next Saturday evening.

Rev. Danville Gannon and wife passed through here on their way to the east branch where they will camp out for a week.

WEST BETHLE.

J. Laurin Clark is still selling watches at East.

Thomas Page of Washington, is visiting at home.

The Mink Packing Co. commenced in the village of Berlin.

A crowd from Hallow passed through here Friday on a straw ride.

OXFORD COUNTY ADVERTISER.

(Entered as second-class mail matter.)

Single Copies of the Advertiser can be had at the office, or by mail, at the rate of five cents each. Subscriptions at the rate of $1.00 per annum in advance. The Advertiser is published every Friday, except on the first of the month, when it is published on the second. It is published at the office of the Advertiser, at the corner of the Main and State streets, in the city of New York.

WEST BETHLE.

J. H. Rollins of Middlebury, having been here with his wife on a visit started for home one day last week. Next Pleasant after their home being broken, and returned so quickly as to throw both out of the wagon, inflicting both and doing slight damage to the wagon.

C. C. Allen, wife and daughter of Dorchester, Mass., while on their way home from the Village Fair, stopped at this place on a visit to their friends, Geo. Goodwin and wife.

Bert and Clara Richardson of Gorham, N. H., were here last week on a visit to W. A. Farwell and wife.

E. F. Pike has built an addition to his store.

Millard Mason came home to visit his parents bringing a lady friend with him. E. B. Shaw is sending potatoes to market.

Mrs. Ed. Bell has the cellar nearly dug for her new house.

Dr. O. F. Whitcomb and Leviason were here last week to attend the funeral of his brother's wife.

Two young ladies, daughters of Eugene and Mrs. A. H. Shaw, are here to visit their grandmother, Mrs. Almira Shaw. Thaddeus Luntton went to Rumford Falls last week.

Little E. Whitman (see Scribner) wife of Melvin Whitman, died at Worcester, Mass., August 29, aged 29 years. Her remains were brought here for burial. The funeral was held at the schoolhouse on the 31st inst. A good number of friends and relatives were present. Little was the daughter of Mrs. A. H. Shaw, who was born in this village. She was a very bright and accomplished young lady. She was always liked near this village. She was kind hearted to all. She was the idol of the family, and leaves many friends who will miss her.

Maud and George Morrow have returned from their trip to Portland.

Mrs. Susan Farwell visited at Gilead last week.

The ladies' chapel at society has purchased the building and is now in the hands of the ladies. It is on the east side of the road between Milton Falls and Mary F. Holt's land. It is considered by all a fine location.

Dr. DeCoster's youngest son who has been dangerously ill is very much improved.

Another race at the White track on Saturday. The race was won by the horse of C. D. Heald's stable on first heats. The three minute race, your correspondent being unable to do so, refrains from the attempt. A game of baseball at the same time and place between Buckfield and Hartford. The result was a tie.

The remains of Mr. Pearce, late of Canada, formerly of this town, were brought here for interment a few days since. Fifty years ago, I am informed, he was called upon to navigate the coast of Oilead to notify relatives of the death of the above named (Pearce's) wife, whose remains were brought here, and now rest in the family lot near Hubbard Road in this town. Her maiden name was Long.

A. E. Cole with mother, Jeff Russell and several others have gone to the sea shore to recuperate.

Stanley Bisset and family were down from Rumford Falls to spend the Sabbath.

Emma Tilton of Auburn is the guest of Gilbert Tilton.

"What must we do to be saved?" Leon Tilton uses this question frequently upon us, and it will continue until 1890 and then the millennium. His wife is a devoted wife and mother. Upon us. Our potatoes are small, our apples somewhat affected. We must have for sale by the barrel, and we must have the buyer must spray also have two sprays, green and red, and kind of a favor, from the heavens above or the earth below. I sprayed my trees last at the blossoms, and in the fall of the year and stopped there. Last year I sprayed twice, as I thought with good effect. If anyone knows just what to do, where, and what to do please report. We want actual experiments, no theoretical deductions will be accepted.

Episcopal services were conducted at the M. E. church last Sabbath at 10.45 a. m., by Rev. Mr. C. D. Heald. The regular service by the Methodist at 2.30 p. m.

African Concert of this town, attended a reunion of his regiment at Kennebec. Since the war he has raised 5 boys and 6 girls. His 5 sons support the town of the Comant's Band, led by the 9 year old Comant's. In appreciation of the services of this band $50 were gratuitously subscribed.

NORTH WEST BETHLE.

W. M. Wright and wife are home again. Mrs. Wright has been visiting her sister at East Bethel and Mr. Wright has been attending a musical convention in Boston.

Mrs. E. S. Skillings is up from Portland.

Mrs. Sarah P. Bean has been quite ill but seems to be gaining a little now.

Mrs. Lydia Scribner Morrill from Yarmouth visited her mother and sister at this place recently.

Irving Reed of Oxford spent last Sunday here with his mother.

Ellen Kenley has come to visit her brother and friends here. Miss Penley's home is in Middleboro, Mass.

Mrs. Mary O. Wilson's only brother, George, is stopping with her for a while.

"They say" Abner P. Chapman has swapped horses with John of Rock. Little and guests had a picnic here, and Saturday morning Mr. and family, Geo. Dawson and wife, Mr. James Stetson, and family and relatives took a picnic supper in the woods.

Herbert Kendall passed through the place the 20th on his way to Berlin. He drives a good horse and a carriage. Charles Valentine's black mare has a very handsome colt.

We see our good luck to see the trot at the Park, but the news of Giff's victory made us laugh, and it was fun to laugh at the horses at the Park. Griffin couldn't pick his feet up, and he was not to "get there" ahead of the beautiful black Drovers, and will have to stop longer and make "the little wheels go round" faster, if he heads the same Griffin.

George W. Mason found two of his sheep dead, and to all appearances they were killed by dogs.

Kimball Bennett of Magalloway visited his sister, Mrs. G. W. Mason, here last week.

Almon Alden, Percy and Jesse Whitney have gone on the road canvassing for fruit trees. They will travel to the southern part of the state until they have sold their trees and will go to Rhode Island this winter. There are working for Homer Chase.

John Stockford is cutting bushes for Almon Alden, a much needed job. Almon will sell out his whole farm to visit next week.

Leno Chadwick of Boston is spending his vacation with Geo. and Leroy Thompson. He works in a store in Boston.

Joseph Shortman has returned from New York and Boston where he has been on business. He has a good horse and goes into winter quarters in his camp on Old York Mountain.

Wm. Fletcher of Lewiston is visiting at John Hyland's.

Wm. Mitchell and Ruth Taylor have gone to the Richardson's place for a school and piano recital dance at half next Saturday evening.

Rev. Danville Gannon and wife passed through here on their way to the east branch where they will camp out for a week.

WEST BETHLE.

J. Laurin Clark is still selling watches at East.

Thomas Page of Washington, is visiting at home.

The Mink Packing Co. commenced in the village of Berlin.

A crowd from Hallow passed through here Friday on a straw ride.

OXFORD COUNTY ADVERTISER.

(Entered as second-class mail matter.)

Single Copies of the Advertiser can be had at the office, or by mail, at the rate of five cents each. Subscriptions at the rate of $1.00 per annum in advance. The Advertiser is published every Friday, except on the first of the month, when it is published on the second. It is published at the office of the Advertiser, at the corner of the Main and State streets, in the city of New York.

WEST BETHLE.

J. H. Rollins of Middlebury, having been here with his wife on a visit started for home one day last week. Next Pleasant after their home being broken, and returned so quickly as to throw both out of the wagon, inflicting both and doing slight damage to the wagon.

C. C. Allen, wife and daughter of Dorchester, Mass., while on their way home from the Village Fair, stopped at this place on a visit to their friends, Geo. Goodwin and wife.

Bert and Clara Richardson of Gorham, N. H., were here last week on a visit to W. A. Farwell and wife.

E. F. Pike has built an addition to his store.

Millard Mason came home to visit his parents bringing a lady friend with him. E. B. Shaw is sending potatoes to market.

Mrs. Ed. Bell has the cellar nearly dug for her new house.

Dr. O. F. Whitcomb and Leviason were here last week to attend the funeral of his brother's wife.

Two young ladies, daughters of Eugene and Mrs. A. H. Shaw, are here to visit their grandmother, Mrs. Almira Shaw. Thaddeus Luntton went to Rumford Falls last week.

Little E. Whitman (see Scribner) wife of Melvin Whitman, died at Worcester, Mass., August 29, aged 29 years. Her remains were brought here for burial. The funeral was held at the schoolhouse on the 31st inst. A good number of friends and relatives were present. Little was the daughter of Mrs. A. H. Shaw, who was born in this village. She was a very bright and accomplished young lady. She was always liked near this village. She was kind hearted to all. She was the idol of the family, and leaves many friends who will miss her.

Maud and George Morrow have returned from their trip to Portland.

Mrs. Susan Farwell visited at Gilead last week.

The ladies' chapel at society has purchased the building and is now in the hands of the ladies. It is on the east side of the road between Milton Falls and Mary F. Holt's land. It is considered by all a fine location.

Dr. DeCoster's youngest son who has been dangerously ill is very much improved.

Another race at the White track on Saturday. The race was won by the horse of C. D. Heald's stable on first heats. The three minute race, your correspondent being unable to do so, refrains from the attempt. A game of baseball at the same time and place between Buckfield and Hartford. The result was a tie.

The remains of Mr. Pearce, late of Canada, formerly of this town, were brought here for interment a few days since. Fifty years ago, I am informed, he was called upon to navigate the coast of Oilead to notify relatives of the death of the above named (Pearce's) wife, whose remains were brought here, and now rest in the family lot near Hubbard Road in this town. Her maiden name was Long.

A. E. Cole with mother, Jeff Russell and several others have gone to the sea shore to recuperate.

Stanley Bisset and family were down from Rumford Falls to spend the Sabbath.

Emma Tilton of Auburn is the guest of Gilbert Tilton.

"What must we do to be saved?" Leon Tilton uses this question frequently upon us, and it will continue until 1890 and then the millennium. His wife is a devoted wife and mother. Upon us. Our potatoes are small, our apples somewhat affected. We must have for sale by the barrel, and we must have the buyer must spray also have two sprays, green and red, and kind of a favor, from the heavens above or the earth below. I sprayed my trees last at the blossoms, and in the fall of the year and stopped there. Last year I sprayed twice, as I thought with good effect. If anyone knows just what to do, where, and what to do please report. We want actual experiments, no theoretical deductions will be accepted.

Episcopal services were conducted at the M. E. church last Sabbath at 10.45 a. m., by Rev. Mr. C. D. Heald. The regular service by the Methodist at 2.30 p. m.

African Concert of this town, attended a reunion of his regiment at Kennebec. Since the war he has raised 5 boys and 6 girls. His 5 sons support the town of the Comant's Band, led by the 9 year old Comant's. In appreciation of the services of this band $50 were gratuitously subscribed.

NORTH WEST BETHLE.

W. M. Wright and wife are home again. Mrs. Wright has been visiting her sister at East Bethel and Mr. Wright has been attending a musical convention in Boston.

Mrs. E. S. Skillings is up from Portland.

Mrs. Sarah P. Bean has been quite ill but seems to be gaining a little now.

Mrs. Lydia Scribner Morrill from Yarmouth visited her mother and sister at this place recently.

Irving Reed of Oxford spent last Sunday here with his mother.

Ellen Kenley has come to visit her brother and friends here. Miss Penley's home is in Middleboro, Mass.

Mrs. Mary O. Wilson's only brother, George, is stopping with her for a while.

"They say" Abner P. Chapman has swapped horses with John of Rock. Little and guests had a picnic here, and Saturday morning Mr. and family, Geo. Dawson and wife, Mr. James Stetson, and family and relatives took a picnic supper in the woods.

Herbert Kendall passed through the place the 20th on his way to Berlin. He drives a good horse and a carriage. Charles Valentine's black mare has a very handsome colt.

We see our good luck to see the trot at the Park, but the news of Giff's victory made us laugh, and it was fun to laugh at the horses at the Park. Griffin couldn't pick his feet up, and he was not to "get there" ahead of the beautiful black Drovers, and will have to stop longer and make "the little wheels go round" faster, if he heads the same Griffin.

George W. Mason found two of his sheep dead, and to all appearances they were killed by dogs.

Kimball Bennett of Magalloway visited his sister, Mrs. G. W. Mason, here last week.

Almon Alden, Percy and Jesse Whitney have gone on the road canvassing for fruit trees. They will travel to the southern part of the state until they have sold their trees and will go to Rhode Island this winter. There are working for Homer Chase.

John Stockford is cutting bushes for Almon Alden, a much needed job. Almon will sell out his whole farm to visit next week.

Leno Chadwick of Boston is spending his vacation with Geo. and Leroy Thompson. He works in a store in Boston.

Joseph Shortman has returned from New York and Boston where he has been on business. He has a good horse and goes into winter quarters in his camp on Old York Mountain.

Wm. Fletcher of Lewiston is visiting at John Hyland's.

Wm. Mitchell and Ruth Taylor have gone to the Richardson's place for a school and piano recital dance at half next Saturday evening.

Rev. Danville Gannon and wife passed through here on their way to the east branch where they will camp out for a week.

WEST BETHLE.

J. Laurin Clark is still selling watches at East.

Thomas Page of Washington, is visiting at home.

The Mink Packing Co. commenced in the village of Berlin.

A crowd from Hallow passed through here Friday on a straw ride.

OXFORD COUNTY ADVERTISER.

(Entered as second-class mail matter.)

Single Copies of the Advertiser can be had at the office, or by mail, at the rate of five cents each. Subscriptions at the rate of $1.00 per annum in advance. The Advertiser is published every Friday, except on the first of the month, when it is published on the second. It is published at the office of the Advertiser, at the corner of the Main and State streets, in the city of New York.

WEST BETHLE.

J. H. Rollins of Middlebury, having been here with his wife on a visit started for home one day last week. Next Pleasant after their home being broken, and returned so quickly as to throw both out of the wagon, inflicting both and doing slight damage to the wagon.

C. C. Allen, wife and daughter of Dorchester, Mass., while on their way home from the Village Fair, stopped at this place on a visit to their friends, Geo. Goodwin and wife.

Bert and Clara Richardson of Gorham, N. H., were here last week on a visit to W. A. Farwell and wife.

E. F. Pike has built an addition to his store.

Millard Mason came home to visit his parents bringing a lady friend with him. E. B. Shaw is sending potatoes to market.

Mrs. Ed. Bell has the cellar nearly dug for her new house.

Dr. O. F. Whitcomb and Leviason were here last week to attend the funeral of his brother's wife.

Two young ladies, daughters of Eugene and Mrs. A. H. Shaw, are here to visit their grandmother, Mrs. Almira Shaw. Thaddeus Luntton went to Rumford Falls last week.

Little E. Whitman (see Scribner) wife of Melvin Whitman, died at Worcester, Mass., August 29, aged 29 years. Her remains were brought here for burial. The funeral was held at the schoolhouse on the 31st inst. A good number of friends and relatives were present. Little was the daughter of Mrs. A. H. Shaw, who was born in this village. She was a very bright and accomplished young lady. She was always liked near this village. She was kind hearted to all. She was the idol of the family, and leaves many friends who will miss her.

Maud and George Morrow have returned from their trip to Portland.

Mrs. Susan Farwell visited at Gilead last week.

The ladies' chapel at society has purchased the building and is now in the hands of the ladies. It is on the east side of the road between Milton Falls and Mary F. Holt's land. It is considered by all a fine location.

Dr. DeCoster's youngest son who has been dangerously ill is very much improved.

Another race at the White track on Saturday. The race was won by the horse of C. D. Heald's stable on first heats. The three minute race, your correspondent being unable to do so, refrains from the attempt. A game of baseball at the same time and place between Buckfield and Hartford. The result was a tie.

The remains of Mr. Pearce, late of Canada, formerly of this town, were brought here for interment a few days since. Fifty years ago, I am informed, he was called upon to navigate the coast of Oilead to notify relatives of the death of the above named (Pearce's) wife, whose remains were brought here, and now rest in the family lot near Hubbard Road in this town. Her maiden name was Long.

A. E. Cole with mother, Jeff Russell and several others have gone to the sea shore to recuperate.

Stanley Bisset and family were down from Rumford Falls to spend the Sabbath.

Emma Tilton of Auburn is the guest of Gilbert Tilton.

"What must we do to be saved?" Leon Tilton uses this question frequently upon us, and it will continue until 1890 and then the millennium. His wife is a devoted wife and mother. Upon us. Our potatoes are small, our apples somewhat affected. We must have for sale by the barrel, and we must have the buyer must spray also have two sprays, green and red, and kind of a favor, from the heavens above or the earth below. I sprayed my trees last at the blossoms, and